This list of Freeview TV channels is provided in good faith. Its accuracy is not guaranteed as new channels are added periodically and others may be removed.

Notes:

- The asterisk character (*) against a channel name is used to identify encrypted Freeview channels which require a Top Up TV subscription.
- (#) Freeview HD services are only available in certain areas of the UK. In some regions like the south of England (Hannington Transmitter) Freeview HD will not be available until Digital Switchover in 2012.
